

THE SOFT-WORD DOOR

An Open-Sesame adventure about kind words.

Mira: "The map says treasure...
if the door will listen."

Pip: "Doors have ears?"
Rude doors."

Speak the soft word...
not the shouty one.

A cartoon illustration set in a lush, sunlit forest. In the center, a small, fluffy orange cat stands on its hind legs, mouth wide open in a shout. To its right, a young girl with brown hair in a ponytail, wearing a green tunic, brown boots, and a red cape, stands with her arms crossed and a skeptical expression. To the left, a large, dark, furry monster with glowing yellow eyes and sharp teeth looms from behind a tree, reaching out with its hands. The ground is covered with small, grey, round stones, each with a smiling face. In the background, a large, ornate wooden door is set into a tree trunk. Three speech bubbles contain text: one from the monster, one from the cat, and one from the girl.

Say MINE!
Louder!

OPEN!

That sounds like a trap.

They try greed words:
Give! Now! All for us! Nothing.”

Please...
may we enter gently?

One kind thank-you
wakes the glow.

Greed bangs.
Kindness knocks.
Soft words open soft worlds.

THE END

Kind words open doors that greed cannot.
